OWIT is a global organization with locally operated chapters established in regions of Africa, the Americas, and Europe. Chapters host events that educate members and foster the creation of new international and domestic connections.

The organization defines its mission as follows: “United around the globe, OWIT’s goal is to foster international trade and the advancement of women in business. Our growing network continues to provide a collective forum to support education, to facilitate information exchange and to promote networking. In pursuing these goals, OWIT strives to provide a rewarding volunteer environment, to stay at the forefront of trade and technological developments, and to build partnerships and alliances with peer organizations and associations.”

Joining a chapter is easy. Visit the organization’s membership page (<https://owit.org/register-membership/>) to find a local chapter near you. OWIT makes it easy to adhere to social distancing guidelines while still being an active member. Use OWIT’s virtual chapter finder (available at <https://owit.org/virtual-chapter/>) to join an online chapter. This is also a useful resource for those who do not have a chapter in their area. After registering with a chapter, individuals are added as members of the global network.

The Organization of Women in International Trade (‘OWIT’) is the leading organization in promoting and supporting women in business, networking, and professional development. From all of us to you, we are excited to see the journey you embark on in your career and hope to help our members in gaining success.
